14. Affidavit in Support.— (1) All pleadings are to be verified by an affidavit and every such affidavit shall be in the format as prescribed in Form 2 annexed hereto.

(2) Every affidavit shall be drawn up in the first person and shall state the full name, age, occupation and address of the deponent and the capacity in which the deponent is signing and shall be signed and sworn before a person lawfully authorized to take and receive affidavits.

(3) Every affidavit shall clearly and separately indicate the statements which are true to the,—

- (a) knowledge of the deponent;
- (b) information received by the deponent; and
- (c) belief of the deponent.

(4) Where any statement in affidavit is stated to be true to the information received by the deponent, the affidavit shall also disclose the source of the information and a statement that the deponent believes that information to be true.

15. Presentation, Scrutiny and Admission of Pleadings.— (1) All pleadings accompanied by a Memorandum of Authorization (Form 4 hereto) are to be presented in person or by any authorized representative/agent of the applicant/appellant/respondent to the Receiving Officer at the head office of the Authority during business hours or at such other place or places and during the time as may be directed by the Authority from time to time. The Pleading may in the alternate be sent by registered post with acknowledgment due to the Authority at the places mentioned above.

(2) The receipt of the applications/appeals shall be duly entered in the register maintained for the purpose by the Receiving Officer.

(3) Upon receipt of the pleadings, the Receiving Officer shall acknowledge receipt by stamping and endorsing the date on which the same has been presented and shall issue an acknowledgment with stamp and date to the person filing the same. In case the pleadings are received by post (registered post, speed post or courier), the date on which the pleading is actually received in the office of the Authority shall be taken as the date of filing of the same and the acknowledgement shall be considered as acknowledgement of receipt. In case the pleadings are received by compact disc or through e-mail, the date on which the same are actually received in the office of the Authority shall be taken as the date of filing and the acknowledgment shall be considered as acknowledgment of receipt.

(4) The Secretary with the approval of the Authority may decline to receive any pleading and if the pleading has already been received may return the same if it is not in conformity with the provisions of the Act or these Regulations or directions given by the Authority or is otherwise defective in the format as set out in Form 3 hereto :

Provided however that no pleading shall be refused for a defect in its presentation, without an opportunity being given to the person filing the same to rectify the defect within the time, which may be allowed for the purpose. The Receiving Officer shall advise in writing of the defects in the Pleading and the time within which the defects should be rectified and the same be presented again.

(5) The Secretary of the Authority shall be entitled to reject the application/appeal if the person filing the same fails to rectify the defect within the time allowed.

(6) As soon as the application/appeal and all necessary documents are lodged and the defects and objections, if any, are removed and the same has been scrutinized and numbered, it shall be placed before the Authority for admission.

(7) The Authority may admit the application/appeal for hearing without requiring the attendance of the applicant/appellant. However, the Authority shall not pass an order refusing admission of the application/appeal without giving the party concerned an opportunity of being heard. The Authority may, if it considers appropriate, issue notice to such person or persons, as it may desire to hear on the admission of application/appeal.

(8) If the Authority admits the application/appeal, it may pass such orders or directions as may be considered necessary, for service of notices to the respondent and other affected or interested parties and for the filing of replies in opposition or in support thereof, in such form as the Authority may direct.

16. Service of notices and Processes issued by the Authority.— (1) Any notice or process to be issued by the Authority to any person or body may be served by any one or more of the following modes as may be directed by the Authority :—

(a) service by the party filing the application/appeal ;

(b) by hand delivery through a messenger ;

(c) by registered post with acknowledgment due ; and

(d) by publication in newspaper in cases where the Authority is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to serve the notices or process on any person in the manner mentioned above.

(2) The Authority shall be entitled to decide by a speaking order in each case the persons or bodies, if any, who shall bear the cost of such service/publication of the notice or process.

(3) Every notice or process required to be served on or delivered to any person may be sent to the person or his agent empowered to accept service at the address furnished by him for service or at the place where the person or his agent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

(4) In the event, any matter is pending before the Authority and the person or body to be served has authorized an advocate, agent or representative to appear for or represent such person in the matter, such advocate, agent or representative shall be deemed to be duly empowered to take service of the notice or process on behalf of the party concerned in all matters and the service on such agent or representative shall be taken as due service on the person to be served.

(5) Where a party to the proceedings serves a notice, the party shall file an affidavit of service with the Authority giving details of proof of service including the date and manner of service of notices and process.

(6) Where any application/appeal is required to be published in newspapers it shall be done in the manner specified in Regulation 33.

(7) The Authority may also effect service or give directions for effecting service in any other manner it considers appropriate.

(8) Save as otherwise provided in the Act or in these Regulations and subject to any direction which the Authority or the Secretary or the Officer designated for the purpose may issue, the applicant/appellant or any other person whom the Authority may make responsible, shall arrange for service or publication of notice or process required to be served or published.

(9) In default of compliance with the requirements of the Regulations or directions of the Authority with regard to the service or publication of notice or process thereof, the Authority may either dismiss the application/appeal or give such order or further directions as the Authority deems fit.

(10) No service or publication required to be done shall be deemed invalid by reason of any defect in the name or description of a person provided that the Authority is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient, and no proceeding shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or irregularity unless the Authority, on an objection taken, is of the opinion that injustice has been caused by such defect or irregularity or there are otherwise sufficient reasons for doing so.

17. Filing of Reply, Objections.— (1) Every party to whom the notice of any proceedings is issued (hereinafter called the 'respondent') and who intends to oppose or support the same shall file a reply together with documents relied upon within such period, as the Authority may direct, in such number of copies as may be fixed by the Authority which shall not be less than six.

(2) In the reply filed, the respondent shall specifically admit, deny or explain the facts stated in the Petition and may also state such additional facts as considered necessary for the decision of the case. The reply shall be signed and verified and supported by affidavit in the same manner as in the case of the Petition. The respondent shall file the Memo of Authorisation in Form 4. The respondent shall also indicate whether he wishes to participate in the proceedings and be orally heard.

(3) The respondent shall before filing the reply, serve a copy of the reply along with the documents duly attested to be true copies on the petitioner or his authorized representative and file proof of such service with the office of the Authority at the time of filing the reply.

(4) Where the respondent states additional facts as may be necessary for the decision of the case, the Authority may at its discretion allow the applicant/appellant to file a rejoinder to the reply filed by the respondents within such period as may be directed by the Authority. The procedure mentioned above for filing of the reply shall apply mutatis mutandis to the filing of the rejoinder.

(5) Every person (other than the persons to whom notices, processes, have been issued calling for reply) who intends to file objections or comments in regard to a matter pending before the Authority, shall deliver to the Receiving Officer, the statement of the objection or comments to the matter with copies of the documents and evidence in support thereof within the time period fixed by the Authority for the purpose.

(6) The Authority may permit any person or persons as it may consider appropriate including any association or other bodies corporate or any group of water users, to participate in any proceeding before the Authority, if the Authority considers that the participation of such person or persons will facilitate the proceeding and the decision in the matter.

(7) In case the Authority is satisfied that any person is interested in any matter pending before the Authority, it may in public interest allow or permit or invite such person to present an opinion or views on that matter, and participate in the proceeding before the Authority on such terms as the Authority deems fit.

(8) The person filing objections or comments shall not be entitled to participate in the proceeding to make oral submissions. However, the Authority shall take into account the objections and comments filed by the person(s) after giving such opportunity to the applicant/appellant and the respondents in the proceeding to deal with the objections and suggestions.

18. Hearings.— (1) The Authority may determine the manner, place, date and time of proceedings, as the Authority deems appropriate for expeditious disposal.

(2) The Authority may decide the matter on the Pleadings of the parties or may call the parties to produce evidence by way of affidavit or lead oral evidence in the matter.

(3) If the Authority directs evidence of a party to be led by way of an affidavit, the Authority shall provide a reasonable opportunity for the other parties to counter the same by way of affidavit or as and when the Authority deems necessary, allow the other party to cross-examine the deponent of the affidavit.

(4) The Authority may direct the parties to file written arguments or submissions in any proceeding before the Authority as deemed appropriate.

19. Power of the Authority to call for further information, evidence.—(1) The Authority may, at any time before passing orders in any proceedings, require any one or more of the parties or any other person whom the Authority considers appropriate, to produce such documentary or other evidence as the Authority may consider necessary for the purpose of enabling it to pass orders.

(2) The Authority may direct the summoning of witnesses, discovery and production of any document or other material objects in evidence, requisition of any public record from any office, examination by an Officer or nominee of the Authority of the books, accounts or other documents or information in the custody or control of any person which the Authority considers relevant to the matter.

(3) The Authority may, if it considers appropriate, allow any of the parties or others specified in sub-regulations (1) or (2) above, to adduce such further documentary or other evidence in regard to evidence made available by any of the parties or other persons under the said sub-regulations.

(4) The Authority may, at any time, summon and enforce the attendance of any person and examine such on oath.

20. Reference of issues to others.—(1) At any stage of the proceedings, the Authority shall be entitled to refer such issue or issues in the proceedings as it deems appropriate to any persons including, but not limited to, the Officers and Consultants of the Authority, whom the Authority considers qualified for rendering advice or an opinion thereon.

(2) The Authority may nominate from time to time any person including, but not limited to, officers and consultants of the Authority to visit any place or places for inspection and report on the existence or status of the place or any facilities therein.

(3) The Authority, may direct the parties to the proceedings to appear before the persons designated in sub-regulations (1) and (2) and to present their respective views and/or make presentation on the subject matter of the proceeding.

(4) The report received from such person shall form a part of the record of the case and the parties shall be given the copies of the report. The parties shall be entitled to make their submissions, written either in support or in opposition to the report, as the case may be.

(5) The Authority shall duly take into account the report given by the person and the replies filed by the parties while deciding the matter and if considered necessary, examine the person giving the report, provided that the Authority shall not be bound by the report given and shall be entitled to take such decision as it may consider to be appropriate.

21. Procedure to be followed where any party does not appear.—(1) If, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, if any party or his authorized agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, nor shows sufficient cause for non-appearance the Authority may, in its discretion, postpone the hearing to another date or dismiss the application/appeal for default when such party is the applicant/appellant, or proceed ex-parte against if such party is the opponent/respondent, to hear and decide the same.

(2) Where an application/appeal is dismissed in default or proceeded ex-parte, the person aggrieved may file an application within 30 (thirty) days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex-parte, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Authority may recall the order on such terms as it thinks fit, if the Authority is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance of the person when the same was called for hearing on the date of hearing under sub-regulation (i) above.

22. Orders of the Authority.— (1) The Authority shall pass orders in such proceedings, and the Chairperson and the Members having attended the hearing of such proceedings shall sign the order/orders.

(2) Every order passed by the Authority shall be a reasoned order and the reasons given by the Authority in support of the orders, including those by the dissenting member, if any, shall form a part of the order and shall be available for inspection and supply of copies in accordance with these Regulations.

(3) The Authority may pass such ad-interim or interim orders, as the Authority may consider appropriate at any stage of any Proceedings, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case. The Authority may from time to time amend, vary or vacate the ad-interim/interim order as the Authority as may be considered appropriate.

(4) All orders and decisions of the Authority shall be communicated as expeditiously as possible from the date of passing thereof to all parties in the proceeding certified by the signature of the Secretary or the Officer empowered in this behalf by the Chairperson or the Secretary and bear the seal of the Authority. The Authority on its website shall also host such orders.

(5) All final orders of the Authority shall be communicated to the parties in the proceedings under the signature of the Secretary or an Officer empowered in this behalf by the Chairperson or the Secretary.

23. Inspection of records and supply of certified copies.— (1) The records of every proceeding shall be open, as of right, to the inspection of the parties or their authorised representatives at any time either during the proceeding or after the orders are passed, subject to payment of fees and compliance with such other terms as the Authority may direct.

(2) The Authority shall, as soon as may be practicable, maintain an indexed database of its records including, inter alia, application/appeal filed, details of hearings conducted, orders / documents issued from time to time.

(3) The records of every proceeding, except those parts, which for reasons directed by the Authority to be confidential or privileged, shall be open to inspection by any person other than the parties to the application/appeal either during the proceeding or after the orders have been passed, subject to such person complying with such terms as the Authority may direct from time to time including in regard to time, place and manner of inspection and payment of fees.

(4) The Authority shall, on such terms and conditions as the Authority considers appropriate, provide for supply of certified copies of documents and papers available with the authority to any person subject to the payment of fee and complying with the term as the Authority may direct.

(5) The Authority shall designate an Officer for ensuring timely response to requests received for supply of certified copies of documents. Such Officer shall maintain a register of such requests made in Form 5 herein and shall endeavour to dispatch the certified copies of documents requested for within a period of 14 (fourteen) working days from the date of receipt of request.

(6) The Authority shall wherever considered necessary make information accessible and available to the public, including, inter-alia, through its website.

CHAPTER III

INVESTIGATION, INQUIRY, COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

24. Investigation, Inquiry, Collection of Information and Confidentiality.— (1) The Authority may make such direction or order as it thinks fit for collection of information, inquiry, investigation, entry, search, seizure and, without prejudice to the generality of its powers, including, inter-alia, the following :—

(a) The Authority may, at any time, direct the Secretary or any one or more Officers or any other person as the Authority considers appropriate to study, investigate or furnish information with respect to any matter within the jurisdiction of the Authority under the Act.

(b) The Authority may, for the above purpose, give such other directions as it may deem fit and state the time within which the report is to be submitted or information furnished.

(c) The Authority may issue or authorise the Secretary or an Officer to issue directions to any person to produce before it and allow to be examined and kept by an Officer of the Authority directed in this behalf the books, accounts, etc., or to furnish any information to the designated Officer.

(d) The Authority may issue such directions, for the purpose of collection of any information, particulars or documents that the Authority considers necessary in connection with the discharge of its functions under the Act.

(e) If any such report or information obtained appears to the Authority to be insufficient or inadequate, the Authority or the Secretary or an Officer authorised for the purpose may give directions for further inquiry, report and furnishing of information.

(f) The Authority may direct such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters to be attended to which may be considered relevant in connection with the above.

(2) If the report or information obtained in accordance with Regulation above or any part thereof is proposed to be relied upon by the Authority for forming its opinion or view in any proceedings, the parties to the proceedings shall be given a reasonable opportunity for filing objections and making submissions on such report or information.

(3) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall with any necessary modifications, apply to the Pleadings under these Regulations as the case may be.

25. Confidentiality.— (1) The Authority may, by order, direct that any information, documents and other papers and materials produced before it or any of its Officers, Consultants, representatives or otherwise which may otherwise come into their possession or custody, shall be confidential or privileged and shall not be available for inspection or supply of copies, and the Authority may also direct that such document, papers or materials shall not be used in any manner except as specifically authorized by the Authority.

26. Assistance of Experts.— (1) The Authority may, at any time, take the assistance of any institution, Consultants, experts, engineers, chartered accountants, advocates, surveyors and such other technical and professional persons, as it may consider necessary, and authorise them to study, investigate, inquire into any matter or issue and submit report or reports or furnish any information. The Authority may determine the terms and conditions for engagement of such professionals.

(2) If the report or information obtained in terms of the above Regulations or any part thereof is proposed to be relied upon by the Authority in forming its opinion or view in any proceedings, the parties in the proceedings shall be given a reasonable opportunity for filing objections and making submissions on the report or information.

CHAPTER IV

FINES AND CHARGES.

27. Imposition of Fines and Charges.— (1) The Authority may initiate a proceeding for imposition of fines and charges upon receiving a complaint or on its own, if the Authority is of the view that the facts made known prima-facie constitute non-compliance or violation by any person of any provision or requirement of the Act or of any of the rules or regulations framed there under or directions/orders of the Authority.

(2) If the Authority decides on the basis of the information received that there is a prima-facie cause to proceed in the matter, a case shall be registered and notice shall be issued to the person responsible for non compliance or violation under sub-regulation (1) above to show cause within a reasonable time as to why the Authority should not impose the fines or charges. The notice shall state the substance of the allegation against such person with specific reference to the alleged non-compliance or violation.

(3) On the date fixed in the notice for appearance, the Authority shall explain to the person responsible for non-compliance or violation or such representative as authorised, the nature of non-compliance or violation committed by such person.

(4) Where the person responsible for non-compliance or violation appears in response to the notice and admits the truth of the allegation by a memorandum in writing, the Authority shall record the response and may impose such fines or charges including compounding the offence as the Authority may consider appropriate in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(5) Where the person responsible for non-compliance or violation on appearance does not admit the alleged violation or non-compliance and demands a hearing, the Authority shall proceed to hear the case in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these Regulations.

(6) If any person to whom a notice has been issued fails without reasonable cause to appear before the Authority on the date fixed for hearing or any subsequent date to which the proceeding may have been adjourned, the Authority may at its discretion proceed with the case ex-parte in the absence of such person.

(7) The Authority shall proceed to hear the complainant and take such evidence or documentary, or by way of affidavit, as may be produced in support of the case and take all such evidence as may be produced by the complainant or the person responsible for non-compliance or violation in his defence.

(8) The Authority, at any stage of the proceeding, shall have the power to summon and enforce the attendance of any person who appears to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case to give evidence or to produce any document, which in the opinion of the Authority appears to be material or relevant to the subject matter of the proceeding.

28. Process for levy and recovery of Fines and Charges.— (1) If on the conclusion of any proceeding under Regulation 27, the Authority is satisfied that a person is liable to fines or charges, it may by order in writing impose such fines or charges in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(2) While determining the quantum of fines or charges, the Authority shall, amongst other, consider the following factors :—

- (a) the nature and extent of non-compliance or violation;
- (b) wrongful gain or unfair advantage derived as a result of the non-compliance or violation;
- (c) loss or degree of harassment caused to any person(s) as a result of the non-compliance or violation, and
- (d) the repetitive nature of the non-compliance or violation.

(3) While passing an order under these regulations, the Authority may award compensation to the complainant or affected party to be paid by the person found to be guilty of non-compliance or violation.

(4) The Authority may direct the manner in which the fine charge or compensation is to be paid and the time within which the concerned person should pay the fines, charges or compensation.

(5) Unless otherwise varied by special order, the fines, charges or compensation ordered by the Authority under Regulation 28 (i) shall be paid within 30 days of the order of the Authority imposing the fine, charge, or compensation or within such extended date as allowed by the Authority.

29. Withdrawal and Disposal of Complaint.— (1) If a complainant, at any time before a final order is passed in any proceedings satisfies the Authority that there are sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw his complaint against the respondent named in the complaint, or if there be more than one respondent, against all or any of them, the Authority may permit the complainant to withdraw the same.

(2) If the Authority, is of the opinion that it will not be appropriate to allow the withdrawal of the complaint, the Authority may make orders for the proceedings in the complaint being continued by such other person in the place of the complainant and in such manner as the Authority may consider appropriate.

(3) Where the Authority is of the opinion that the continuance of the proceeding under these regulations is unnecessary or is an abuse of the process, it may at any stage, terminate the proceeding for reasons to be recorded in writing.

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS

30. Review of the decisions, directions and orders.—(1) Any person aggrieved by a decision or order of the Authority, from which no appeal is preferred or allowed, and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence was not within such person's knowledge or could not be produced by such person at the time when the decision/order was passed by the Authority or on account of some mistake or error apparent from the face of record, or for any other sufficient reason, may apply for review of such order within 60 (sixty) days of the date of decision/ order of the Authority.

(2) An application for review shall be filed in the same manner as set out in Regulation 12 of these Regulations.

(3) When it appears to the Authority that there is no sufficient ground for review, the Authority shall reject such review application.

(4) The application for review shall be accompanied by such fee as may be specified by Authority.

31. Continuance of Proceedings after death, Liquidation.—(1) Where in any proceeding any of the parties to the proceeding dies or is adjudicated as insolvent or in the case of a company it being under liquidation or winding up or amalgamation/merger, the proceedings shall continue with the successors-in-interest, executors, administrators, receiver, liquidator or other legal representatives of the party concerned, as the case may be. The Authority may however, for reasons to be recorded, treat the proceedings as abated in case the Authority so directs and dispense with the need to bring the successors-in-interest on the record.

(2) In case any person wishes to bring on record the successors-in-interest, etc., the application for the purpose shall be filed within 90 (ninety) days from the event requiring the successors-in-interest to be brought on record. Provided that the Authority, if it is satisfied that there is sufficient cause for not filing the application within the time allowed, may subject to such terms and conditions condone the delay.

(3) If the person fails to bring on record the successor-in-interest within the time allowed under sub-regulation (ii) and in the event the application for condoning the delay in bringing on record the successor-in-interest is filed but not condoned under the proviso to sub-regulation (ii) the proceedings against the person deceased shall abate.

32. Proceedings to be open to public.—The proceedings before the Authority shall be open to the public subject to availability of sitting accommodation. Provided that the Authority may, if it thinks fit, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, order at any stage of the proceeding of any case shall not be open to the public or any particular person or group of persons.

33. Publication.—(1) Where any application, petition, appeal, or other matter is required to be published under the Act or these Regulations or as per the directions of the Authority, it shall unless the Act or Regulations otherwise provide, in the absence of any specific direction to the contrary, be advertised prominently within such time as the Authority may direct not less than 3 (three) weeks before the date fixed for hearing in not less than one (1) daily newspaper in English language in two (2) daily newspapers in Marathi having highest State-wide circulation and two (2) daily local newspapers in Marathi language having circulation in the area, in such form as directed by the Authority. Except as otherwise provided, such advertisements shall give a heading describing the subject matter in brief concerned.

(2) Except as otherwise provided, such advertisements shall give a heading describing the subject matter in brief.

(3) Such advertisement to be published shall be approved by the Officer of the Authority designated for the purpose.

34. Issue of orders and practice directions.— Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Regulations, the Authority may, from time to time, issue orders and directions and practice directions in regard to the implementation of the Regulations and procedure to be followed on various matters, which the Authority has been empowered by these Regulations to lay down.

35. Saving of inherent power of the Authority.— (1) Nothing in these Regulations shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Authority to make such orders as may be necessary for meeting the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Authority.

(2) Nothing in these Regulations shall deem to limit or otherwise bar the Authority from adopting in conformity with the provisions of the Act, a procedure, which is at variance with any of the provisions of these Regulations, in view of special circumstances of a matter or class of matters and for reasons to be recorded in writing, the Authority deems necessary or expedient.

(3) Nothing in these Regulations shall, expressly or impliedly, bar the Authority to deal with any matter or exercise any power under the Act for which no Regulations have been framed, and the Authority may deal with such matters, powers and functions in a manner it thinks fit.

36. Interpretation.— The Authority shall be the final authority for interpretation of these Regulations.

37. General power to amend/rectify.— The Authority may, at any time and on such terms as to costs or otherwise, as it may think fit, amend any defect or error in any Proceedings before it (including any clerical or arithmetical error in any order passed by the Authority), and all necessary amendments, rectifications shall be made for the purpose of determining the real question or issue arising in the Proceedings :

Provided that if the Authority desires to make amendments or rectifications in order to determine the real question or issue arising the Authority shall provide an opportunity to the parties affected by such amendment or rectification touching the real question or issue to make representations and submissions with respect to the proposed amendment or rectification.

38. Power to remove difficulties.— If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these Regulations, the Authority may, by general or special order, do anything not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, which appears to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulties.

39. Extension or abridgement of time prescribed.— Subject to the provisions of the Act, the time prescribed by these Regulations or by order of the Authority for doing any act may be extended (whether it has already expired or not) or abridged for sufficient reason by an order of the Authority.

40. Effect of non-compliance.— The failure to comply with any requirement of these Regulations shall not invalidate any proceeding merely by reason of such failure unless the Authority is of the view that such failure has resulted in miscarriage of justice.

41. Costs.— (1) Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be directed by the Authority, the costs incidental to all Proceedings shall be awarded at the discretion of the Authority and the Authority shall have the powers to determine by whom or out of what funds and to what extent such costs are to be paid and give all necessary directions for the aforesaid purposes.

(2) The costs shall be paid within 30 (thirty) days from the date of the order or within such time as the Authority may, by order, direct. If a party fails to comply with an order for costs within the permitted period, the order of the Authority awarding costs shall be executed forthwith in the same manner as a decree/order of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

42. Enforcement of orders passed by the Authority.— The Secretary shall have the powers to enforce the compliance of the orders passed by the Authority, by the persons concerned in accordance with the provisions of the Act and Regulations and if necessary, may seek the orders of the Authority for directions.
